Sgt. Fisher: -

I would call you mister, but I'm still just a little peeved at you because you wouldn't send me one of your "party" cards.

Here's Bob's check. Please put him in good standing again. The boy really means well, but he is just a little absent-minded (at times.)

You & Roy didn't get together on the big deal so you could leave town on business. Too bad. We were looking for you. Little Kenneth is fine. Haven't seen Roy for quite awhile. Guess he is real busy.

Guy said that he was still hoping to be on a party with you that you would stick with them until the end. They are telling tales on you. Write us soon! Best regards,
"Mac"
