

hear a few words from Mr. Pierson Anderson of R.C.A. Manufacturing Co., Inc.

MR. ANDERSON:- Gentlemen of the Association. I am very happy to be with you again and I want to take this opportunity of congratulating the organization on the very lengthy stride they have made in the plan for an intercity net work. However, it has been kind of a burden on the manufacturer and it is quite difficult to design equipment in that short space of time. However, we are glad to cooperate with you in any way possible and if there are any questions any of you have, I will be in the exhibit booth and will be only too glad to answer them for you.

PRESIDENT BATTS:- Thank you Mr. Anderson.

PRESIDENT BATTS:- Next on our program is the report of the Committee on Coordination of National Police Organizations. On the program it says opening statement by the Chair. ^{as} An explanation of ~~that~~ is, ~~that~~ the International Association of Chiefs of Police appointed a special committee last November to study the desirability and need for the means of bringing about closer coordination between the four National Police Associations, the IACP, APCO, the IAC and the SPEA. This committee met under the Chairmanship of Chief of Police of Wichita, Kansas, and drafted a plan for such coordination. They submitted the plan to the APCO to study and take action on and wanted us to attend the meeting which was held on September 22nd, ^{at Kansas City Mo,} of all ^{during} ^{IACP} ^{Convention} four organizations. I wish to state at this time, that the plan ~~was~~ ^{does} ^{have} not ~~of~~ ^{have} the importance that I thought it ~~would~~ be at the time it was made. The meeting was held in Kansas City, but two of the organizations were not represented, consequently there was not a great deal of action taken and I think now we should hear from Lt. DeShaffon on the resolution that was passed.

LT. DESHAFFON:- The meeting was very brief. They had discarded the old plan and adopted this resolution in place. The resolution
