PRESIDENT BATTS:- We will start voting as they have been nominated. The first one to be voted on is Mr. Kennedy. All those in favor of Mr. Kennedy for the position of Secretary-Treasurer make known by standing. 2 voted for Mr. Kennedy. All those in favor of Mr. Chatterton make known by standing. 13 stood for Mr. Chatterton. All those in favor of Mr. Fisher make known by standing. 26 stood for Mr. Fisher. Sergeant Fisher is ~~unanimously~~ elected to the office of Secretary-Treasurer.

PRESIDENT BATTS:- Next we come to Sergeant-at-Arms. Mr. E.F. Brown of Des Moines, Iowa, has been nominated for that position by the nominating committee.

MR. WILDT:- Mr. President, I move that the nominations be closed and that the Secretary be instructed to cast one vote for Mr. Brown.

MR. O'NEILL:- I second that motion. Motion carried.

PRESIDENT BATTS:- May we have a few words from Lt. Denstaedt who is our newly elected President.

LT. DENSTAEDT:- May I express my appreciation first. I will try in the next year to run the office as well as has been done in the past but I do not believe I will be able to do the amount of work Captain Batts has done on this bulletin and on the enormous correspondence he has handled, ~~but~~ I do realize that we can't let this work down. I talked an hour and a quarter yesterday and it seems to me that should have been a warning to you so I'll accept it myself as a warning and allow Mr. Kinsey an hour and a quarter instead.

MR. KINSEY:- It is indeed a privilege to have been elected First Vice President of AAPCO and I wish to state, that as far as I am concerned, APCO is really going to be out in the front fighting just as hard in the next year as we have in the past.

MR. NELSON:- I will try to do my best in discharging my duties as
