

36

City will permit the development of an outstanding program which would undoubtedly attract the largest attendance in your history. Best wishes for a successful meeting in Davenport with the hope that New York City will be awarded your 1937 Convention.

(Signed) F.H. LaGuardia, Mayor
City of New York.

New York, N.Y.
Oct. 5, 1936

Capt. Robert L. Batts
Blackhawk Hotel,
Davenport, Iowa

We have just learned an invitation is being extended for the Associated Police Communications Officials Convention to meet in New York City in 1937. We hasten to add our invitation to others that have been extended and to hope New York City can be designated for 1937. On behalf of this civic organization we pledge you our cooperation should a convention be held in Manhattan.

(Signed) James W. Danahy, Managing
Director and Secretary West Side
Association of Commerce.

New York, N.Y.
Oct. 5, 1936

Capt. Robert L. Batts
Blackhawk Hotel,
Davenport, Iowa

The lights of Broadway will be brighter when your 1937 convention is held in New York City. Broadway is the crossroads of the world and this civic organization as its representative is happy to join with others in inviting the 1937 convention of the Associated Police Communications Officials to New York City.

(Signed) John E. Gratke, Managing Director Broadway Assn.

New York, N.Y.
Oct. 5, 1936

Capt. Robert L. Batts,
Blackhawk Hotel,
Davenport, Iowa

New York's civic interests as represented by the New York Board of Trade wishes to join with local members in an invitation for the 1937 convention of the Associated Police Communications Officials