

to meet in Manhattan. May we hope that the Convention this year has been successful and may we add we believe if your 1937 convention is held in New York City you will be amazed at the attendance and surprised at the value arising from your business and entertainment program. Come to New York in 1937.

(Signed) Percy P. Magnus, President
New York Board of Trade.

PRESIDENT BATTS:- Mr. Chatterton, will you please come up to the front and tell us why we should come to Cleveland in 1937?

A very interesting description of Cleveland was given by Mr. Chatterton and reasons were cited why we should have our 1937 Convention in Cleveland.

PRESIDENT BATTS:- Mr. Scroggin, will you please come up to the front and tell us why we should come to Kansas City, Mo., in 1937?

A very strong bid was made by Mr. Scroggin for the Convention to be held in Kansas City, Mo. in 1937.

PRESIDENT BATTS:- Mr. Morris, will you please tell us why we should come to New York City, in 1937?

Mr. Morris of New York City, gave a very interesting and amusing talk on why the convention should be held in New York City in 1937.

PRESIDENT BATTS:- Perhaps we had better settle the question of whether or not the convention will be a three or four day session next year before we select the convention city.

MR. WILDT:- I move that our next convention be a four day session.

MR. FISHER:- I second that motion. Motion carried.

PRESIDENT BATTS:- We will now vote on the cities that have made bids for our convention in 1937. First we will vote on Cleveland. All those in favor of having Cleveland as our convention city for 1937
