

please make known by standing. 5 stood and cast their votes for Cleveland. All those in favor of going to Kansas City, Mo., please make known by standing. 12 stood and cast their votes for Kansas City. All those in favor of going to New York City, please make known by standing. 27 stood and cast their votes for New York City.

PRESIDENT BATTS:- Gentlemen, our next convention will be in New York City and it will be a four day session.

MR. MORRIS:- Gentlemen, I accept the obligation. Thank you very very much. New York will be waiting for you.

Meeting adjourned.

Banquet held at 8:30 P.M. in the Gold Room of the Hotel Blackhawk.

The concluding event of the Convention was the banquet, held on the evening of October 7th, in the Gold Room of the Hotel Blackhawk. Addresses were made by the following:

Honorable Merle F. Wells, Mayor of Davenport

Colonel A. G. Gillespie, Commandant
Rock Island Arsenal

E. P. Coffey, Chief of the Technical Laboratory,
United States Department of Justice

E. K. Jett, Assistant Chief Engineer,
Federal Communications Commission

Lt. E. C. Denstaedt, President-Elect

(Major Harry F. Evans, Davenport, was Master of Ceremonies)

The high spot of the evening was a half-hour program broadcast over a coast-to-coast hookup by the Blue network of the National Broadcasting Company. The broadcast, made from a room adjoining the Gold Room, consisted of a question and answer round-table discussion of the new Intercity Radiotelegraph Communication System and its future possibilities in police work. A radio receiver was installed in the banquet hall so that members assembled there could hear the broadcast.

- -0- -

Much was accomplished. A good time was had by all. In short, the Convention was a big success.