What costs the same as it did three years ago? APCO BULLETIN advertising rates, that's what.

Our rates have remained the same since January 1974. That's a long time -- in view of rising costs of production that we don't have to tell you about.

So, the time has come for The BULLETIN, Journal of Public Safety Communications, to increase its rates. You will find our new rate card #8 enclosed. These new rates will become effective January 1, 1977.

But, we do offer you an economical alternative. Send us your 1977 APCO media contract prior to January 1, 1977 and we will honor our current rates for all of 1977.

We hope you'll take advantage of this opportunity to join us during 1977. APCO is growing and so is the market. Our trade shows and conferences remain the biggest and the best in the public safety telecommunications field. Our regulatory efforts are in your interests, too.

Remember January 1, 1977. Call us at (904) 427-3461. Plan ahead -- and save.

Cordially,

Gary Luther
Editor
APCO BULLETIN
